Iowa Code Camp

Saturday, May 3rd

8:00 AM – 5:30 PM

Iowa City, Iowa

CRIneta.org, Iowa .NET and the ITS department at the University of Iowa are joining forces to bring the first code camp to Iowa on May 3, 2008 at the University of Iowa Conference Center in Iowa City, IA!

A Code Camp Is

- Community driven
- High quality content
- For and by developers

- No cost for attendees
- All about code, not PowerPoint presentations
- Source code and slides must be available to share with people who attend

See iowacodecamp.com for details and registration

- Great Sessions and Speakers
- Breakfast
- Opportunities to meet with developers from around the area, development community leaders and Microsoft MVPs

- Lunch
- Door Prizes

It's the best free developer experience you'll have this year
